

Eduitalia, an Association of qualified Schools and Universities that offers courses for foreign students in Italy, through the Associated Institutes mentioned below, is pleased to support the important initiative of the Embassy of Italy in Washington for the promotion of Italian language in the United States, particularly at the AP level.

The 28 scholarships granted by Eduitalia will enable the recipients to enjoy Italy through an unforgettable learning experience.

Detailed information about the numerous study options offered in Italy is available on Eduitalia's web site (www.eduitalia.org).

You can download the online version of the guide "Eduitalia-Study in Italy", or explore the course of studies which interest you through the search engine which, thanks to its subdivision by cities and/or courses of studies, enables you to identify the course you need.

ALL THE STUDENTS who will take an AP- Italian exam are eligible. Winners of the following scholarships will be randomly selected by a raffle organized by the Educational Office of the Embassy of Italy in Washington:

1) n.14 all-expenses-paid scholarships (that means free course, lodging, teaching equipment and extra-curricular activities), divided as follows:

- a) –n. 1 scholarship for 5 weeks
- b) –n. 6 scholarships for 4 weeks
- c) – n. 7 scholarships for 3 weeks

2) –n. 14 scholarships with partial coverage of expenses for variable periods (of up to 4 weeks).
